DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the braking means must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 2-3 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Although applicant has made mention of braking means and brake controlling means, applicant has failed to describe the relationship between the braking means and the device. Specifically applicant has provided no detail of the braking means in the specification, nor the relationship between the braking means and the brake controlling means and the device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 5, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuentes (U.S. 5,358,463). Referring to claim 1, Fuentes discloses an apparatus including a lower part (14) comprising a non-skipping means (22), a mobile upper part rotating relatively to the lower part, and means for coupling in rotation the respective upper and lower parts.

6. Referring to claim 5, Fuentes teaches the gripping portion being symmetrical.
7. Referring to claim 7, Fuentes teaches a molded gripping piece.
8. Referring to claim 8, Fuentes discloses rotative coupling means comprising ball bearings.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 2, 6, and 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fuentes in view of Wallisch (U.S. 4,770,409). Referring to claim 2, Fuentes discloses the claimed limitations above including a hollow piece adapted to receive the palm of a user, but fails to teach recesses for the fingers of a user. Wallisch teaches a gripping device, and specifically teaches recesses extending beyond a central part adapted to receive fingers of a user. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to provide the device of Fuentes with recesses as taught by Wallisch in order to provide a user with mean to provide a better grip for a user using the device.

Art Unit: 3764

11. As broadly claimed referring to claim 6, the modified Fuentes teaches two main protrusions and 3 inter-digit protrusions. (See fig. 1 of Wallisch).
12. Referring to claim 9-10, Fuentes as modified above teaches a gripping organ including a hollow central part adapted to receive the palm of a user, and recesses adapted to receive the fingers of a user.
13. Referring to claim 10, Fuentes teaches a portable accessory (60).

Conclusion

14. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
